Classes will run Tuesday, every other Wednesday, and Thursday from October 4th through November 17th

All workshops will run from 5:00pm-7:00pm. (If any workshop is cancelled, the workshop will be rescheduled for a Tuesday or Thursday in November).

Take the entire series or take as many as you would like. Each workshop is a stand-alone in regards to content.

Introduction to ASAM basic format will be offered in support of CADC in the future.

CADC Frequently Asked Questions

Who can benefit from taking these workshops?

SUD Professionals who want to brush up on their skills in preparation for taking a certification examination. This series is intended Substance Use Professionals who want to refresh their knowledge of Substance Use Disorders and basic counseling concepts in their preparation for taking the CADC or NCAC-1 examinations. The workshops are also for those interested in learning more about Substance Use conditions and interacting with individuals with an SUD.

Are there CE Credits associated with the workshops?

Yes, the workshops are approved by DCB, NAADAC, NBCC and NASW-DE. Participants assume responsibility for ensuring that the certificate of training will be accepted by their professional accreditation organization. In compliance with certification requirements, CE workshop certificates will be issued to those who register for and complete an entire workshop.

What are the requirements for CE Credits?

To receive CE Credits, you must be present for the entire session (a 10-minute grace period will be given at the beginning), participate in polls during the session, ensure that you register through Zoom with your first and last name, and complete the session evaluation after attending the training.

By taking these workshops, will I be eligible to take the CADC or the NCAC-1 examination?

All information related to eligibility to become a Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor can be found on the Delaware Certification Board's website, <https://www.decertboard.org/certifications>. All information related to eligibility to become a National Certified Addiction Counselor, Level I from NAADAC, the Association for Addiction Professionals, can be found at NAADAC's website, <https://wwwnaadac.org/ncac-i>
